

ARTISAN/EXHIBITOR VENDOR INFORMATION & AGREEMENT 2018

The Summer Solstice Indigenous Festival (SSIF) & Competition Pow Wow is one of the few Indigenous events that truly showcases the cultural diversity of the urban Indigenous community, including First Nations, Métis and Inuit Peoples. We are pleased to host this event once again, for up to 40,000 visitors at Vincent Massey Park, Ottawa. In this document and any corresponding documents the Summer Solstice Indigenous Festival & Competition Pow Wow will be referred to as SSIF or the Festival.

SSIF will be in the usual spacious green location at Vincent Massey Park in Ottawa. SSIF organizers are committed to providing guests with the opportunity to purchase high quality Indigenous food and crafts. Preference for all booths will be given to Canadian & U.S. First Nations, Métis, and Inuit applicants. Booth location spots will be filled on a “first come, first serve” basis. Community Exhibitors who are non-profit Indigenous groups and Corporate Exhibitors who are marketing appropriate services are welcome. Please note that SSIF may choose to decline an application, in which case the Vendor/Exhibitors’ deposit, if received, will be returned. SSIF encourages Artisan Vendors and Exhibitors to provide signage and materials in both official languages, English and French. Indigenous language signage is a great way to engage your audience.
